A person wearing a dark, hooded robe stands in the center of a cave, their back to the camera. They are looking out through a large, irregular opening in the rock wall. The light from the opening is very bright, creating a strong silhouette of the person and casting long, golden rays of light into the dark interior of the cave. The rock walls are textured and layered. The overall mood is one of hope and emergence from darkness.

I Am the Resurrection
and the Life

The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face
wrapped with a cloth.

John 11:44 (ESV)

This illness does not lead to death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.

John 11:4 (ESV)

Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I go to awaken him.

John 11:11 (ESV)

Lazarus has died, and for your sake I am glad that I was not there...

John 11:14 (ESV)

But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you.” Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.

John 11:22-24 (ESV)

I Am
the Resurrection
and the Life

Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?

John 11:25 (ESV)

Do you believe this?

I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life.

1 John 5:12 (ESV)

(Your Name) come out!
